Main Stage Series

September 11, 2008

Bearfoot

Bearfoot's music is deeply American. Airy Northern ballads are tempered by back-alley Southern blues, while jazz stomp meets Appalachian breakdown, the whole fused with a signature sexy bluegrass passion. 7:30 p.m.

October 18, 2008

Frank Vignola's Rhythm Machine

Frank Vignola's Rhythm Machine shatters the barriers between popular music and traditional jazz. The result - a smokin' blend of contemporary acoustic rock, gypsy jazz, bluegrass, swing, and blues.

8:00 p.m.

November 15, 2008

The Cashore Marionettes

The internationally acclaimed Cashore Marionettes redefine the art of puppetry. The moving and humorous performances have astounded audiences in Europe, the Far East and across North America including stops at the Kennedy Center. A special workshop will be at 3:00 on the same afternoon. 8:00 p.m.

February 5, 2009

Rave On!

Remember Poodle Skirts? How about car hops, the twist, hula hoops... and Buddy Holly? Well, the 50's are no longer just a thing of the past... Join us for "Rave On!" an electrifying new show paying homage to Rock 'n' Roll's immortal legend - Buddy Holly. 7:30 p.m.

March 12, 2009

Tom Chapin in Concert

America's favorite family entertainer, Tom Chapin is a gifted singer who charms the audience. His remarkable musicianship, great songwriting and personal warmth shine through to create a special experience for young and old alike. Tom and the band will dazzle you with their versatility, rich harmonies, full sound and good humor. 7:30 p.m.

April 1, 2009

"el gleno grande"

Having performed for over 15 years on every continent except Antarctica ("it's just a matter of time") Glenn has secured a place for himself at the very bottom of the big time with engagements at such places as Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas, Universal Studios in Hollywood, and Ed's Big Top in Hurricane. 7:30 p.m.

May 2, 2009

Susan Werner

With 6 albums under her belt, an active touring career throughout the U.S. and a string of accolades from the likes of The Washington Post, The Village Voice and The New Yorker, Susan Werner has become one of the defining artists of the folk music genre. Her songs effortlessly slide between folk, jazz and pop, and are delivered with a sassy wit and classic Midwestern charm. 7:30 p.m.

Bearfoot

A Children's performance will be offered at 1:00 p.m.

October 3, 2008

Junie B. Jones

Outspoken, precocious, lovable Junie B. Jones stars in a colorful, funny, fast-paced musical about new friends, new glasses, sugar cookies, the annual kickball tournament, and other various first-grade angst-ridden situations. 9:00 & 11:00 a.m.

December 10, 2008

Amber Brown is NOT a Crayon

Told in a uniquely funny and forthright style, this story of a feisty young girl who refuses to let her problems get the better of her will touch and entertain audiences everywhere. You'll laugh and cry with Amber as she learns some valuable lessons about the virtues of patience and the meaning of friendship. 9:00 & 11:00 a.m.

January 28, 2009

The Rainbow Fish

Will some good advice from the wise old Octopus persuade the Rainbow Fish to share her gifts with those around her? ArtsPower has turned Marcus Pfister's bestselling book into a delightful and touching musical about the value of sharing true friendship with others. 9:00 & 11:00 a.m.

March 12, 2009

Tom Chapin's "Clean Machine"

Inspired by Chapin's Grammy nominated recording "This Pretty Planet," and updated with new songs from Tom's songbag, this show features a collection of environmental songs filled with fun, humor and memorable melodies. Tom Chapin uses his trademark wit to express how each of us can do our part to ensure a clean and green future. 1:00 p.m.
